

Seminar

Future TEN-T for Economy and Society

25th February 2014

Instytut Kolejnictwa, ul. Generała Józefa Chłopickiego 50, 04-275 Warszawa

Organiser:

Polish Association of Transport Engineers & Technicians (SITK)

Cooperation:

The Community of European Railway and Infrastructure Companies (CER)
International Union of Railways (UIC)
Railway Institute in Warsaw (IK)
Construction Club

Honorary Patronage:

Zbigniew Klepacki – Undersecretary of State, Ministry of Infrastructure and Development
Cezary Grabarczyk – Deputy Speaker of the Sejm

Patronage:

General Directorate of National Roads and Motorways

<08:00 – 09:00 Registration>

09.00 – 10.45

Session 1: Future TEN-T for high quality passenger services. A major challenge for governments, railways and investors

Opening: PhD Andrzej Żurkowski (President of SITK RP, Director of Polish Association of Transport Engineers & Technicians)

Session leader: PhD Adam Wielądek (SITK RP, Honorary Chairman of UIC)

- Investment plans concerning railway infrastructure included with the base and comprehensive TEN-T in prospect 2014-2020 – Zbigniew Klepacki, Undersecretary of State, Ministry of Infrastructure and Development
- European politics in the light of the White Book 2011 and the corridor approach in frames TEN-T – Paweł Stelmaszczyk, European Commission
- Current situation, barriers and perspectives for development passenger service in EU – Libor Lochman, Executive Director, CER
- TEN-T for fast passenger railway service – Michel Leboeuf, Chairman of Intercity and High Speed Committee, UIC
- UIC Passenger Forum for development of passenger service – Ignacio Barrón, Director of Passenger and High Speed Department, UIC

10.45 – 12.00

Session 2: Future TEN-T in Central and East Europe

Session leader: Juliusz Engelhardt, Szczecin University

- EU Regulation for Trans European Transport Network – Beata Tuszyńska, Department of Strategy Coordination and Policy of Development, Ministry of Infrastructure and Development
- CEF (Connecting Europe Facility) as the new funding instrument supporting transport infrastructure investments in the EU including special allocation for Member States beneficiaries of the Cohesion Fund – Paweł Stelmaszczyk, European Commission, DG MOVE
- The possibility and legitimacy of the proposal the prompt regional cooperation of CEE countries in the destination of achieving the benefit from the development of the corridor North – South – prof. Adam K. Prokopowicz
- Program for new road network – PhD Tomasz Rudnicki, Deputy Director of General Directorate of National Roads and Motorways

<12:00 – 13:00 Lunch>

13.00 – 14.45

Session 3: Railway – Cities – Regions

Session leader: Michel Leboeuf (Chairman of Intercity and High Speed Committee, UIC)

- Railway and management of development the cities and regions. Identification of problems and issues. Examples of good practices. Presentation of UIC reports – UIC Passenger Forum
- Railway and development of region In Poland. Integration of transportation systems. Panel discussion – prof. Tadeusz Markowski, President of Society of Polish Town Planners
- Role of multimodal nodes for development of passenger service – PhD Andrzej Żurkowski (President of SITK RP, Director of Polish Association of Transport Engineers & Technicians)
- Air and railway transport –spheres for common initiative – PhD Andrzej Żurkowski (President of SITK RP, Director of Polish Association of Transport Engineers & Technicians)
- Perspectives of increasing the freight transport in the west corridor – Juliusz Engelhardt, Szczecin University
- Efficiency of investments in the modernization and construction of infrastructure – Teresa Kłusek, President of Alstom Konstal Transport Polska
- New high speed train – Janusz Kućmin, Chief Country Representative, Bombardier Transportation Polska Sp. z o.o.

14.45 – 17.30

Session 4: How to achieve synergy among national High Speed Railway Programs.

Session leader: Ignacio Barron (Ignacio Barrón, Director of Passenger and High Speed Department, UIC)

- Presentation of national programs for high speed networks. Experiences from other regions. Whether combining passenger and freight business for operators on HS lines is possible? Conclusion and road map – presented by UIC Passenger Forum.

spikers: Ignacio Barron (UIC), Michel Leboeuf (France), Ottmar Grein (Germany), Takumi Ishii (Japan), Kong Qi (China), Christophe Delnatte (Belgium), Jindrich Smit (Czech Republic), Clara Zamorano (Adif, Spain), Imanol Leza (Basque Railway Network), Victorino Pérez (Renfe Operadora, Spain).

Media patronage:

Organiser:

Polish Association of Transport Engineers & Technicians (SITK)
T. Czackiego Street 3/5, 00-043 Warsaw

Information:

Agata Pomykała, Secretary General, SITK: +48 516 039 535
Agnieszka Suchorolska, Marketing Specialist, SITK: +48 506 116 966
e-mail: event@sitk.org
www.sitk.org